The person(s) nominated must be your 'dependant(s)' and may be any of the following:

Any person who the Trustee board considers was wholly or partly dependent on or financially inter-dependent with your earnings at the time of your death – such as a 'common law' partner, fiancé, fiancée, living at the same address – may also qualify in these circumstances, but please note that no spouse's pension would be payable.

If you wish to nominate someone not covered by these categories, the Pensions Office recommends that you have a Will drawn up which gives clear instructions similar to this nomination form. The Trustee board can, where appropriate, make payment to your legal representative.

*For the avoidance of doubt, references to your widow, widower or spouse apply whether of the same or opposite sex.
